

Announcement for expression of interest: 2 vacant positions in the frame of the project
“Promoting eHealth in cbc Area by Stimulating local Economies” funded by Interreg IPA
CBC Programme Italy-Albania-Montenegro 2014-2020

University Hospital Medical Center “Mother Teresa” (UHMC) is beneficiary in a project financed by European Union in the frame of Interreg IPA CBC Programme Italy-Albania-Montenegro 2014-2020, “Promoting eHealth in cbc Area by Stimulating local Economies”. UHMC is acting as a partner in this project will be engaged in the coordination and effectively implementation of the project, in cooperation with other partners involved in the project. For this reason, the UHMC , seeks to hire 2 external experts who will conduct and prepare some evaluations of the health sector in the Country.

As above, the UHMC invites interested candidates to express their interest in the following job positions:

- Public health specialist

The positions will be based in Tirana with a 2 month period contract (per hour payment)

Application procedure:

Interested candidates have to submit following application documents:

- A motivation letter in English;
- Curriculum vitae (CV) in Europass format in English;
- Photocopy of University/ies diploma (no translation needed);
- Certificates of trainings, computer and language skills;
- Other relevant supporting documents on the previous experience (reference letters, certificates, etc).

For more details, please refer to the Terms of Reference enclosed to this notice.

Interested candidates should send application documents hand delivery or post mail, by 28 May, 2021 until 14.00h to the following address: University Hospital Medical center ‘Mother Teresa’ Rruga e Dibres, 372, Tirana, Albania, to attention: Directory of personnel with subject: Expression interest in frame of the project, “Promoting eHealth in cbc Area by Stimulating local Economies” Italy-Albania-Montenegro 2014-2020”, specifying the respective position which are applying for.

Only shortlisted candidates will be invited for the interview.